TESSERENT OPENS WORLD-CLASS SECURITY OPERATIONS CENTRE AT NEW PREMISES TO SUPPORT STRONG BUSINESS GROWTH

Tesseract Limited (ASX: TNT) is pleased to announce that it has officially opened a world-class Security Operations Centre (SOC) housing its team of security experts and security engineers at the company's new Melbourne Head Office at Level 5, 990 Whitehorse Road, Box Hill. Phone and fax numbers remain the same.

Tesseract MD Keith Glennan said: "As was reported in our latest 4C filing, Tesseract is growing strongly, and I'm delighted that we are able to stay ahead of the game by giving our cyber security experts the best facilities and equipment, helping them to keep our clients' data secure."

"The new SOC includes a number of highly redundant systems including multiple high-speed network links to Tesseract's various data centre facilities, and a large display wall to provide visibility of both customer-specific and global security issues. The centre provides our team with a 24/7 view of the security landscape, enabling us to manage, monitor protect and respond to incidents within our customers' networks," said Glennan.
